Normandy Insurance Company Names Heshy Langner as President & CEO

Deerfield Beach—Normandy Insurance Company, an innovative workers' compensation insurance carrier that offers customized plans to select Florida businesses, has named Heshy Langner as President and CEO.

Langner, who also serves as Vice Chairman of the Board, has been involved in the day-to-day operations at Normandy Insurance since 2012. A graduate of Columbia Law School, he has held leadership roles in law and finance.

"I've worked closely with Therese A. Stevens, our former President and CEO, for the past three years, during which we have seen remarkable growth," Langner says. "Normandy Insurance currently has $32M in assets, $20M in workers' compensation written premium and $10M in surplus, with a combined ratio of .90.

"Building on our accomplishments, our expansion plans include applying for admittance in a number of new states and expanding our portfolio of exceptional workers' compensation coverage options and services. All of us at Normandy Insurance thank Terri for her contributions to our company, and we wish her success," says Langner.
