Normandy Insurance Company Expands Coverage of Workers' Compensation to Mississippi

Deerfield Beach, FL (May 2, 2019) – Florida-based workers' compensation carrier Normandy Insurance Company is now offering workers' compensation insurance to small, mid-size, and large businesses in Mississippi. Normandy's methodical growth strategy has ramped up since the beginning of the year, adding five new states to their portfolio. Normandy now offers workers' compensation insurance in Florida, Georgia, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Mississippi.

"This is our fifth major expansion since the beginning of 2019. Our strategy has always been to offer workers' compensation plans to as many businesses nationwide as possible. Adding the robust and diverse economy of southern states, such as Mississippi allows us to attract the best professionals in the industry," says Normandy's Senior Vice President & Chief Underwriting Officer Jayson Buechler. "At Normandy, we have built a stellar reputation for customer service, thanks to our flagship program that offers cost-efficiencies to fit any budget and preventative advice for a safer workplace."

Normandy provides a well-rounded approach to worker's compensation insurance – from loss prevention programs through to the claims process – that ensures customers will receive exceptional personal service throughout. Thanks to Normandy's strong financial footing and their Demotech Financial Stability Rating® of A (Exceptional), the company anticipates continued expansion into more states soon.
